Please answer the following questions so the Collection Agency Board can determine your need for a collection agency license in the State of Wyoming.

	Yes	No
1. Is the purpose of your business to collect debts for Wyoming creditors (any person who offers or extends credit creating a debt or to whom a debt is owned)?
2. Do you take assignment of debts for the purpose of collecting those debts?
3. Do you solicit Wyoming creditors to collect their debts?
4. Do you use a name other than your true company name to collect your past-due accounts?
5. Do you collect debts that originated in Wyoming that were incurred by Wyoming debtors?
6. Do you service credit card debt?
7. Do you collect only business debt?
8. Are you a licensed attorney collecting debts for your clients, in the client's true names?
9. Do you purchase bulk debt that originated with another and that are already in default at the time of purchase or assignment?
10. Do you collect judgment debts?
11. Please send attachments or a cover letter to provide additional details if needed.	n/a	n/a

If the Wyoming Collection Agency Board determines a collection agency license is not needed for the State of Wyoming, a certificate of exemption will be issued. If the Board determines a license is needed, you will be required to obtain this license prior to conducting collection business in this state.

The Board recommends all entities monitor changes made to Wyoming statutes and regulations governing collection agencies as this may change an entity's exemption status or the need to obtain a license.
